8.4 Any exercise by us of our rights under this Clause 8 shall be without prejudice to, and shall not limit or affect, any other rights or remedies available to us under this Agreement or otherwise.

8.5 Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies available to us under Applicable Laws, we may charge interest on any overdue sum owed to us under this Agreement for the period from (and including) the original due date to (but excluding) the actual date of payment, at the Interest Rate.

8.6 You understand and agree that we may from time to time prevent you from withdrawing funds from any General Client Account where any sums (including any Payment and/or Margin) are due but unpaid by you to us under the terms of this Agreement.

- (a) to reflect a change in Applicable Laws or market practice;

10.3 You will notify us immediately upon becoming aware of the occurrence of any of the events referred to in Clause 10.2 above.

- (b) we may terminate this Agreement pursuant to Clause 10.2 above; or

11 Consequences of termination

11.1 On or as soon as reasonably possible following a Termination Date all Trades shall be Closed Out, pending Orders shall be cancelled and we shall determine (in our sole discretion):

- (a) the amount recorded as being held in your General Client Accounts on the Termination Date;
- (b) the total Losses incurred by us in respect of and following a Close Out;
- (c) the market value of all Margin being held by us as at the Termination Date; and
- (d) the total balance of any amounts, other Losses, Payments, fees and/or commissions payable by you as a result of the provision of Services by us pursuant to this Agreement, or otherwise and which remain unpaid.

11.2 Based on the sums so established pursuant to Clause 11.1, we shall determine the balance due from each party to the other (each a "Due Balance"). Following such determination and subject to Applicable Laws, a party's Due Balance shall be set-off against the other party's Due Balance, and the net balance of such set-off shall be calculated; with the resulting balance being the "Termination Amount". Subject to Applicable Laws, if the Due Balance due to us by you is greater than the Due balance due to you, the Termination Amount shall be payable by you to us; and if the Due Balance due to you by us is greater than the Due balance due to us, the Termination Amount shall be payable by us to you. For the purposes of this calculation, all sums not denominated in GBP be converted into GBP at the spot rate prevailing at such dates and times determined by us, acting reasonably.

11.3 The parties understand and agree that following a Termination Date:

- (a) we will not be required to accept any further instructions or Orders from you;
- (b) we will not be required to:
  - (i) take into account for the purposes of the determination of the Termination Amount; or
  - (ii) pay or otherwise account to you,any profit made by us in respect of and following a Close Out; and
- (c) in the event that all or any part of the Termination Amount owed by you to us is not paid when due, such unpaid amount will accrue interest for the period from (and including) the original due date to (but excluding) the actual date of payment, at the Interest Rate.

11.4 Subject to Applicable Laws, if the Termination Amount is payable by:

- (a) you to us, such amount shall be immediately due and payable to our Nominated Account; or
- (b) us to you, such amount shall be immediately due and payable to your nominated bank account (but in all cases, subject to our rights to set-off such Termination Amount in accordance with the terms of this Agreement).

11.5 Upon or following the occurrence of a Termination Date and subject to Applicable Laws, we shall have the right without prior notice to you or any other person to:

- (a) set-off any Termination Amount owed by us to you against any obligation owed by you to us (or any of our Affiliates), whether or not arising under this Agreement, matured or contingent and irrespective of the currency, place of payment or booking office of the obligation, or
- (b) set-off any Termination Amount owed by you to us against any obligation owed by us (or any of our Affiliates) to you, whether or not arising under this Agreement, matured or contingent and irrespective of the currency, place of payment or booking office of the obligation),

(the "Other Amounts"). To the extent that any Other Amounts are so set-off, those Other Amounts will be discharged promptly and in all respects. For the purpose of cross-currency set-off, we may convert either obligation at the applicable market exchange rate selected by us on the relevant date. If an amount of an obligation is unascertained, we may estimate that amount and set off in respect of the estimate, subject to the relevant party accounting to the other when the amount of the obligation is ascertained. Nothing in this Clause 11.5 will be effective to create a charge or other security interest. This Clause 11.5 is subject to Applicable Laws and will be without prejudice and in addition to any right of set-off, offset, combination of accounts, lien, right of retention or withholding or similar right or requirements to which a party is at any time otherwise entitled or subject (whether by operation of law, contract or otherwise).

11.6 Following the payment of the Termination Amount in full (and, if applicable, any set-off in accordance with Clause 11.5), we may close your General Client Account(s).

11.7 The termination of this Agreement shall not affect any provisions of this Agreement that are expressly or by necessary implication intended to survive such termination.

11.8 On termination of this Agreement, all rights granted to you in connection with the App shall cease and you must immediately delete or remove the App from your device.

13 The General Client Account

13.1 Your General Client Account is a payment account or electronic money account which enables you to send and receive electronic payments in accordance with the terms of this Clause 13. We do not accept cheques or any similar forms of payment, and such methods shall not be considered as satisfying any payment obligations.

- 13.2 Your General Client Account is not a personal bank or deposit account and you will not earn any interest on the funds held in the General Client Account.
- 13.3 As the provider of your General Client Account, we are authorised by the FCA under the EMRs (Firm Reference Number: 900797) as an electronic money institution, which allows us to issue e-money and provide payment services.
- 13.4 As an electronic money institution, we are required to ensure that 'relevant funds' are appropriately 'safeguarded' in accordance with the provisions of the EMRs. There are different ways in which this can be achieved. Currently we use the 'segregation method' which means that relevant funds received by us are held in one or more segregated bank accounts separately from our own funds, in accordance with the EMRs and PSRs. Ebury may also elect at any time to invest the relevant funds in secure, liquid assets approved by the FCA and place those assets in a separate account with an authorised custodian, in accordance with the EMRs and PSRs. In the event of our insolvency, these funds will form an asset pool which is separate from our insolvent estate and an administrator will be entitled to reimburse you from this pool (in priority to other creditors).
- 13.5 Your General Client Account(s) are denominated in the currencies as selected by you.
- 13.6 You agree that, unless you are a consumer:
- (a) while we may do so, we are not obliged to comply with the information requirements set out in Part 6 of the PSRs in relation to your use of the Services and the General Client Account;
  - (b) regulations 66(1), 67(3), 67(4), 75, 77, 80, 83, 91, 92 and 94 of the PSRs do not apply to your use of the Services or the General Client Account; and
  - (c) a different time period applies for the purposes of regulation 74(1) of the PSRs.

14 Using the General Client Account

- 14.1 Upon receipt of any funds from you, or on behalf of you from third parties, we will credit a corresponding amount to credit your General Client Account.
- 14.2 Your General Client Account can be used to (a) place funds in one or more currencies nominated by you; (b) make Transfers (alone or in combination with a Trade); (c) make Payments in connection with one or more obligations hereunder (including in respect of Trades); and (d) pay Margin.
- 14.3 We will not allow you to make any Transfer or Payment out of your General Client Account where this would put your General Client Account into a negative balance. You should therefore ensure that you have sufficient funds, including for the purposes of satisfying any Margin Call which may be made from time-to-time, in your General Client Account before placing a Payment Order or Order.
- 14.4 You must pay any applicable fees in connection with our Services. We may impose fees or charges for our Services, including a fee for the use of a General Client Account and/or on a per Trade, Order or Payment Order basis, at our discretion. Information on our fee structure is provided in the fee appendix attached to this Agreement and/or any other fee appendix accepted by you as part of the Application Form or otherwise (the "Fee Appendix", as amended from time to time in accordance with clause 9). Without prejudice to your rights in clause 9, if you disagree with any changes to the Fee Appendix, you may terminate this Agreement and the fees set out in the previous Fee Appendix shall apply up until the date of termination. We will let you know the amount of any fees we charge when you place or we process a Trade, an Order or a Payment Order (as applicable). All fees payable to us under or in connection with this Agreement are exclusive of any taxes (including any applicable value added tax or other relevant sales tax).
- 14.5 Please note that other costs, taxes, fees or charges may apply to you that are not charged by us and/or won't be paid through us unless otherwise agreed between us and you in writing. You are responsible for paying such costs, taxes, fees or charges where these apply. It is your responsibility to determine what, if any, taxes apply to the payments you make or receive, and it is your responsibility to collect, report and remit the correct amount of tax to the appropriate tax authorities. If we are required to withhold any taxes, we may deduct such taxes from amounts otherwise owed to you and pay them to the appropriate authority.
- 14.6 You can place a Payment Order and/or an Order from your General Client Account via digital means (to the extent the relevant Service(s) are enabled), by telephone or by email:

- (a) Digitally - You must log on to the Online System or other digital platform (using your password and log-in details) and follow the instructions to submit your Payment Order and/or an Order.
  - (b) Telephone - You must call an Ebury Representative and specify your Payment Order and/or an Order, together with such other information as we may reasonably request.
  - (c) Email - You must email us and specify your Payment Order and/or an Order.
- 14.7 When placing a Payment Order and/or an Order you will be required to provide us with the requisite details (including any unique identifier and other information which we may request).
- 14.8 A Payment Order and/or an Order will be deemed to have been authorised by you if the relevant instruction has been given (i) in accordance with this Agreement (which may include any applicable security procedures) or (ii) pursuant to any specific arrangements agreed with you and governed by separate terms and conditions or (iii) through any Third Party Provider. We may treat an instruction generated or given through your use of the Services or given through any Third Party Provider as if it was an instruction given by you or an Authorised Party under this Agreement, and the resulting Payment Order and/or Order as authorised accordingly.
- 14.9 We reserve the right to stop the use of any means or method (including our Online System or App) you or an Authorised Party use to give us a Payment Order and/or an Order (an "Order Facility") on reasonable grounds relating to the security of the Order Facility or the suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent use of the Order Facility. Before stopping the use of any Order Facility, we will inform you that we intend to stop such use and give our reasons for doing so, unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so, in which case we will inform you immediately afterwards. In either case, we will inform you in the manner in which we consider most appropriate in the circumstances and will not be obliged to inform you where doing so would compromise our reasonable security measures or otherwise be contrary to Applicable Laws. You may request that the use of the Order Facility is no longer stopped by following the notification procedure referred to in the paragraph below, but we will not be obliged to accede to your request until after the reasons for stopping its use cease to exist.
- 14.10 We reserve the right to refuse any Payment Order or Order (including any given through any Third Party Provider) which does not satisfy all the relevant conditions as set out in this Agreement or the execution of which would contravene any Applicable Laws; and we shall not be liable to you for any such refusal. Unless such notification would be contrary to Applicable Laws, we will notify you in the manner in which we consider most appropriate in the circumstances of the fact of refusal, (if possible) the reasons for the refusal and (where it is possible to provide reasons for the refusal and those reasons relate to factual matters) the procedure you may use to rectify any factual errors that led to the refusal.
- 14.11 You acknowledge and agree that with respect to transactions which are:
- (a) payment transactions in euro within the European Economic Area (the "EEA");
  - (b) (national payment transactions in a non-euro currency of a member state of the EEA ; or
  - (c) payment transactions within the EEA involving the conversion between euro and a non-euro currency of a member state of the EEA, and where:
    - (i) the currency conversion is carried out in the member state which has a non-euro currency; and
    - (ii) in the case of cross-border payment transactions, the cross-border transfer takes place in euro,
- the Beneficiary's Account shall be credited by no later than the end of the Business Day following the Business Day on which the relevant Payment Order was received by us. In the event that a Payment Order is received by us after 4 pm (London time) on any Business Day, it shall be deemed to have been received by us on the following Business Day.
- 14.12 With respect to payment transactions within the EEA involving the currency of a member state which is not covered by Clause 14.11 above, you agree that the Beneficiary's Account shall be credited by no later than the end of the fourth (4th) Business Day following the Business Day on which the relevant Payment Order was received by us. In the event that a Payment Order is received by us after 4 pm (London time) on any Business Day, it shall be deemed to have been received by us on the following Business Day.
- 14.13 If you are sending money to a Beneficiary Account that is located within the EEA, the only permitted charging option for that payment will be Shared Charging (also referred to as “SHA”). For these purposes, “Shared Charging” means that you will pay our charges for the payment transaction, and the beneficiary will pay any charges levied by the beneficiary’s payment service provider for the receipt of funds. If you are sending money to a beneficiary whose payment service provider is located outside of the EEA, Shared Charging is likely to apply unless you notify us that you are electing to:

- (a) apply the “OUR” charging option whereby you pay both our charges and the charges levied by the beneficiary’s payment service provider (which may result in increased charges for you on a per transaction basis); or
- (b) apply the “BEN” charging option whereby the beneficiary of the payment will pay both our charges and the charges levied by the beneficiary’s payment service provider.

You understand and agree that in the event that you notify us that the OUR or BEN charging option is to apply, we will use reasonable endeavours to give effect to your instructions, provided that we may, in our sole and absolute discretion, continue to apply Shared Charging.

- 14.14 Where you make a payment using your General Client Account, the amount of the payment will be deducted by us from your General Client Account balance. You must ensure that you have sufficient funds in your General Client Account to cover the amount of the Payment Order or Order you want to make using your General Client Account. If you do not have sufficient funds in your General Client Account, we reserve the right to postpone the execution of such Payment Order or Order, and we may impose a charge to cover the costs of us doing so.
- 14.15 You can check the balance held in your General Client Account digitally, including logging into the Online System. Key information relating to payments made using the General Client Account, including all fees and any other charges applied to your General Client Account and transaction history, will be available (in accordance with Applicable Laws) digitally, including logging into the Online System.
- 14.16 Each transaction made using the General Client Account will be given a unique transaction ID which will be set out in the transaction history. You must quote this transaction ID when communicating with an Ebury Representative about a particular transaction.
- 14.17 Unless we agree otherwise, any redemption from your General Client Account will be to the bank account which you notified to us when you first registered to use our Services. You can request a redemption through the Online System, unless we agree otherwise.
- 14.18 You understand and agree that, notwithstanding the terms of this Clause 14, we may at any time and from time to time delay a payment to or from your General Client Account whilst we investigate, and conduct such other reasonable checks and enquiries, for the purposes of ensuring that such payment will not contravene any Applicable Laws. We may suspend, terminate or cancel any such payments which we believe (in our sole and absolute discretion) contravene Applicable Laws.

15 Liability for incorrect execution and unauthorised payments

- 15.1 Subject to Clause 21, in the case of a Payment Order that we agree has been improperly executed due to our mistake, we shall immediately refund the amount to your General Client Account. In the event that you identify an error in a Payment Order, you should inform us immediately in any case no later than thirteen (13) months from the date you become aware of the error to notify us of it; after which time we will have no obligation to investigate or act upon your notification or provide a refund.
- 15.2 In the case of an unauthorised payment from your General Client Account, at your written request we shall refund the unauthorised payment amount to your General Client Account. We will not however be required to refund such a payment:
  - (a) where your actions (or omissions) have caused or contributed to the unauthorised payment being made from your General Client Account;
  - (b) where the unauthorised payment arises from your failure to keep your General Client Account log-in, password or other security details safe;
  - (c) if you fail to notify us without undue delay of any Loss or misuse of a log-in or password or another event that could reasonably be expected to have compromised the security of your General Client Account after you have gained knowledge of such event, in which case you shall remain liable for all Losses incurred after gaining such knowledge; or

- (d) if you fail to dispute and bring the unauthorised payment to our attention within thirteen (13) months from the date of the relevant payment.

15.3 You further understand and agree that:

- (a) In the event that you discover an unauthorised payment, you must notify us no later than thirteen (13) months from the date of that unauthorised payment in order to be entitled to redress.
- (b) In the event that a payment was not authorised by you, we will refund the amount of the transaction to you, and your maximum liability in respect of such unauthorised payment will be £35 unless you are found to have acted fraudulently or negligently or allowed another person to use your General Client Account.
- (c) We shall be liable to you under the PSR where we fail to perform or incorrectly perform any payment transaction that you authorise us to perform.
- (d) Where you believe that we may have failed to perform or incorrectly performed a payment transaction, you must notify us without undue delay and in any event no later than thirteen (13) months from the date of such payment. We will make appropriate efforts to investigate and where we have failed to perform or incorrectly performed such payment transaction, we will make good and correct the error.

16 Limiting use of your General Client Account

16.1 We may suspend or otherwise restrict the functionality of your General Client Account on any reasonable grounds relating to the security of the General Client Account or any of its security features or if we reasonably suspect that an unauthorised or fraudulent use of your General Client Account has occurred or that any of its security features have been compromised or where a Force Majeure Event occurs and is continuing. At any time and from time to time (in our sole and absolute discretion), we may increase or otherwise enhance our security checks in relation to your General Client Account, any Payment Order and/or any Order made by you.

16.2 We may also suspend your General Client Account, restrict its functionality and/or reduce your trading limit to nil if any Payments are outstanding.

16.3 We will notify you of any suspension or restriction and of the reasons for such suspension or restriction in advance or, where it is impracticable to do so, immediately after the suspension or restriction has been imposed, unless that would be unlawful or compromise our reasonable security interests.

16.4 We will lift the suspension and/or the restriction as soon as practicable after the reasons for the suspension and/or restriction have ceased to exist.

17 Your use of a Third Party Provider

17.1 You have the right, to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, with respect to your General Client Account, to make use of a Third Party Provider.

17.2 You acknowledge and agree that if you do make use of a Third Party Provider, such Third Party Provider:

- (a) in the case of an AISP, shall have access to your General Client Account and all the transactions, data and other information contained therein (which may include sensitive personal information);
- (b) in the case of a PISP, shall be able to give Payment Orders as if it were you or an Authorised Party acting on your behalf;
- (c) in the case of a CBPII, shall be able to request confirmation of funds availability within your General Client Account; and
- (d) in all other cases, may be able to give Payment Orders and/or Orders as if it were you or an Authorised Party acting on your behalf and/or request confirmation of funds availability within your General Client Account; and/or access your General Client Account and all the transactions, data and other information contained therein (which may include sensitive personal information), to the relevant Service(s) are enabled on the respective Platform, and you agree that we shall act on such access, instructions and requests as if they were provided to or given by you and shall be effective as if yours, whether or not authorised. You expressly waive any confidentiality, data protection, banking secrecy or professional secrecy obligations with respect to any such access.

- 17.3 We may deny a Third Party Provider access to your General Client Account for any reasons relating to unauthorised or fraudulent access to your General Client Account by that Third Party Provider, including the unauthorised or fraudulent initiation of a Payment Order. Unless we are excused by Applicable Laws from giving such notification, we will notify you in the manner in which we consider most appropriate in the circumstances of the denial of access and, unless we are excused by Applicable Laws from providing such reasons, the reasons for the denial before such denial of access, unless it is not reasonably practicable to do so, in which case we will notify you as soon as reasonably practicable afterwards. You acknowledge that we may be required to report the incident to the relevant competent authority with details of the case and the reasons for taking action.
- 17.4 You acknowledge and agree that it is your responsibility, and not the responsibility of the relevant Third Party Provider, to notify us of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed Payment Order and/or Order or any non-executed or defective funds transfer in accordance with this Agreement, notwithstanding that the Payment Orders and/or Order and/or relevant funds transfer was initiated through a Third Party Provider, and further that we may disregard such notification received from a Third Party Provider.

18 Receiving payments and using account details in your name

- 18.1 Subject to this Clause 18 and any restrictions set out in this Agreement, you can ask us for General Client Account details which you can then give to third parties so that they can send funds to your General Client Account in a given currency. We may charge a fee for this service; and the provision of such service is subject to our discretion and Applicable Laws. It is important that you or the third party (as applicable) enter the correct account details when executing the payment for the incoming transfer. The details for the General Client Account that we give you will be details for an account owned by us and funds that are credited to the General Client Account will be transferred to us as payee. Upon receipt of the funds by us, we will credit the corresponding value of the funds to your General Client Account. For certain incoming payments, we may ask you to provide additional information (in line with our obligations under Applicable Laws): for example, we may ask you for copies of invoices for one or more incoming payments. If you or the third party enter incorrect account details in regards to the payment and, as a result, we do not receive the funds, we are not responsible for any Losses you or the third party incur.
- 18.2 Subject to the terms of Clause 18.1 and our agreement (in writing), you can receive payments from the following third parties:
- (a) vendors or other partners; and/or
  - (b) if you sell goods online, certain Ebury-approved online marketplaces or payment gateways.
- 18.3 You cannot use your General Client Account details to set up direct debits or receive payments from short-term lenders, unless otherwise agreed by us in writing.
- 18.4 Please note that the currencies supported are subject to change and may be subject to further restrictions. You must consult with an Ebury Representative to confirm if the currency you expect to receive is supported. Please visit our website for further information about your General Client Account. If you receive funds in a currency different from your General Client Account, these funds will be converted into the relevant currency at our relevant currency conversion rate. Ebury and its Affiliates will not be responsible for any Losses you may incur as a result of this exchange. If you receive funds in an unsupported currency the payment might be declined and Ebury and its Affiliates will not be responsible for any Losses you may incur.
- 18.5 You are responsible for paying all taxes and related charges which you may be required to pay (in any jurisdiction) as a result of you receiving funds using your General Client Account. If you are unclear as to your obligations, you should seek independent advice from a tax professional.
- 18.6 Payments made to your General Client Account may be subject to reversal (for example, if one of your clients exercises its cancellation rights). If we receive any such request, we may deduct the relevant amount from your General Client Account and pay it back to the payer or the payer's payment service provider. Ebury and its Affiliates will not be responsible for any Losses you may incur as a result.
- 18.7 Payments originated from overseas by you or a third party are not eligible for the Faster Payment Scheme. Should we receive any overseas payments to UK accounts in GBP, we may (in our sole and absolute discretion) return and credit the relevant amount to the originating account. Ebury and its Affiliates will not be responsible for any Losses you may incur as a result.

18.8 We will not make General Client Account details available to businesses or provide any Service to support transactions which involve directly or indirectly or relate to online gambling, pornography, firearms, illegal drugs and paraphernalia, prescription drugs from unlicensed or online pharmacies, forged documents, products infringing copyrights or counterfeit goods, payday Loans and pawn shops, cryptocurrencies, or any activity that Ebury deems is illegal on contrary to Applicable Laws (“Excluded Business”).

18.9 At our discretion, we may assign you one or more account details in your name, which consist of an account number and other necessary information to accept or make payments in a given currency. These account details are a routing address for your General Client Account. This means that payments sent using such account details will be reconciled to your General Client Account balance. Funds received by us which reference account details in your name will be treated in exactly the same way as any other funds you hold with us (see Clause 13).

18.10 Eligibility to use account details in your name is subject to change, and is dependent on certain country restrictions and Applicable Laws. We reserve the right to refuse to provide account details in your name. Before we provide you with account details in your name, we may request additional information or documentation to comply with our obligations to our regulators or otherwise under Applicable Laws. You must provide us with this requested information within a reasonable timeframe.

19 How to Place and Confirm a Trade

19.1 The Services relating to Spot Contracts and Forward Contracts (the “FX Services”) described in the following Clauses 19 to 24 do not constitute the issuance of electronic money nor the provision of payment services, are not regulated activities and are therefore not subject to regulation by the FCA. Accordingly, FCA regulatory protections do not apply to your use of the FX Services. In particular, you may not be entitled to refer a complaint in relation to the FX Services to the FOS as envisaged in Clause 12.

19.2 You can place via digital means (to the extent the relevant Service(s) are enabled), by telephone or by email, as further described in Clause 14.6. You understand and agree that the decision as to whether or not we decide to enter a Trade with you following the receipt of your Order is subject to our full discretion.

19.2.1 Once we have received your Order, we will confirm:

- (a) the amount of the Sale Currency and/or the Purchase Currency;
- (b) the foreign exchange rate and/or spread which we intend to apply;
- (c) any Payment to be made in respect of such Order;
- (d) any Margin payable by you as consequence of such Order (which we may later request at our discretion); and
- (e) any additional terms which we intend to apply to the relevant Trade.

19.3 Upon receipt of an Order, we will provide you with a Transaction Receipt and a Payment Instruction Confirmation, which we may provide in a single communication.

19.4 You must carefully review the Transaction Receipt and the Payment Instruction Confirmation and tell us (i) before Payment and (ii) within one (1) hour of receipt of your Transaction Receipt and/or Payment Instruction Confirmation, if we have made any errors in such Transaction Receipt and/or Payment Instruction Confirmation. We will provide you with a revised Transaction Receipt and/or Payment Instruction Confirmation as soon as possible. If we do not hear from you within the timeframe above or if you make the relevant Payment, you understand and agree that you will be deemed to have agreed with the Transaction Receipt and/or the Payment Instruction.

19.5 If you confirm your Order (and make Payment in accordance with Clause 21) on a non-Business Day (or after our cut-off times (details of which can be made available to you upon request by you to an Ebury Representative)), we will process your Order on the next Business Day.

20 Trade Suspension, Amendment or Cancellation

20.1 You may not cancel a Trade which you have placed with us. However, if we have not yet processed the Trade:

- (a) you can correct any incorrect Beneficiary Account details (though we may charge a fee for this); or
  - (b) we may at our discretion permit you to cancel the Trade.
- 20.2 We may reject, suspend, delay, amend, decline, disregard or cancel an Order and/or Trade, or refuse to issue a Transaction Receipt in our sole discretion (including as may be required by Applicable Laws). Where we may reject, suspend, delay, amend, decline, disregard or cancel an Order and/or Trade we shall notify you as soon as reasonably practicable and, to the extent permitted by Applicable Laws, use all reasonable efforts to notify you of the reasons for such refusal.
- 20.3 We may amend a Trade if a Force Majeure Event occurs, where in our sole discretion reasonable steps are required to avoid Losses being incurred. Such amendment shall not alter the parties' rights and obligations under this Agreement.
- 20.4 You must ensure that you have sufficient funds in your General Client Account to cover the amount of any Trade you want to make using your General Client Account. If you do not have sufficient funds in your General Client Account, we may postpone the execution date of the Trade and we may impose a charge to cover the costs of us doing so.
- 20.5 You understand and agree that, in the event that a Trade is cancelled:
- (a) if we have already received the Payment Amount, we will return and credit such amount to the originating account, provided that in the event that we determine (in our sole and absolute discretion) that the foreign exchange rate and/or spread at the time of return is different from that which applied at the time of the relevant Order or as set out in the Transaction Receipt, the amount returned will be subject to the then subsisting foreign exchange rate and/or spread (which may result in such returned amount being more or less than the original Payment Amount);
  - (b) we will not refund any fees that you have paid to us in respect of such Trade/Order; and
  - (c) we may require you to pay an additional fee (as agreed with you at such time) for the purposes of effecting the relevant cancellation.

21 Payment

- 21.1 You must pay the full Payment Amount to us (either from your General Client Account or otherwise) on or before the Delivery Date. If we have not received the Payment Amount by the Delivery Date (or any agreed change to the Delivery Date agreed pursuant to Clause 22.7), we may:
- (a) refuse to fulfil the Trade; and/or
  - (b) Close Out the Trade.
- 21.2 We undertake Confirmation of Payee checks for certain Payment Orders and when you amend details of certain established payees. This system checks with the payee's payment service provider whether the account holder's name you have provided to us with an account number, sort code or other relevant data, matches that which is held by that payment service provider in relation to the provided account number and sort code. That payment service provider will check their records and will give an answer. This may include a match, a close match, no match, or that a check wasn't possible. If it's a close match, we will show you the name of the account holder that is linked to the sort code and account number you gave. You will be asked to confirm if you want to go ahead with the Payment Order, or amendment to the established payee's details, once you know the result of the Confirmation of Payee check. You must check the Confirmation of Payee response and the payment details carefully to help make sure you will pay the right person. If you need to, you can change the Payment Order or payee details. If you go ahead, we will assume that the information you have given us (such as an account number and sort code) is correct. By proceeding after receiving a Confirmation of Payee response, you agree to us acting on the Payment Order or making such changes to the details of an established payee.
- 21.3 Subject to Applicable Laws and Clause 21.4, your Payment might have gone through Confirmation of Payee, we shall not be liable for any such Payments if you proceed with a Payment Order following a warning that the Payment could be sent to the wrong payee or account due to the check not being possible, there being no match in account details or a close match in account details.
- 21.4 Subject to Clause 15, your Payment might have gone through Confirmation of Payee and if you were told under this process that the name matched the sort code and account number you provided, and this was wrong, you may be entitled to recover any loss. In those circumstances, please contact us.

21.5 Failure to make Payment in accordance with this Clause 21 will be a material breach of this Agreement and you shall be fully liable for any Loss we or our Affiliates suffer as a result of such breach (including, but not limited to, any Loss we or our Affiliates suffer as a result of a Close Out).

21.6 Without prejudice to any other rights and remedies available to us under Applicable Laws or pursuant to this Agreement, we may charge interest (to the extent permitted by Applicable Law) on any unpaid sum due to us under this Agreement at the Interest Rate. This interest will accrue daily from (and including) the original due date for payment to (but excluding) the actual date of payment in cleared funds.

22 Forward Contracts

22.1 From time to time we may agree to enter into a Forward Contract with you. You understand and agree that:

- (a) we buy and sell currency for non-speculative purposes only and will not trade with you if you are seeking to enter into Forward Contract(s) as an investment or to profit by pure speculation on foreign exchange rate movements;
- (b) we will only enter a Forward Contract with you if we are satisfied that you are entering such Trade (i) for non-speculative reasons and (ii) to facilitate the payment by you of goods, services and/or direct investments; and
- (c) you will immediately notify us if the purpose of your Forward Contract (i) has ceased to become one to facilitate payment of identifiable goods, services and/or direct investment or (ii) could be considered as being for speculative reasons.

22.2 At any time and from time to time, we may, in our sole discretion, notify you of a Margin Call. You understand and agree that in the event we consider (in our sole discretion) from time to time, that the amount of Margin you have transferred to us hereunder is insufficient to secure or otherwise collateralise your obligations and liabilities to us, we may make additional Margin Calls to you.

22.3 In the event of a Margin Call, you must transfer the relevant Margin amount (or additional Margin amount, as the case may be) to our Nominated Account by the later of (i) twenty-four (24) hours of us notifying you of a Margin Call or (ii) the due date stipulated in the Margin Call Receipt (if applicable).

22.4 In providing us with Margin, you agree that such monies (i) will become the absolute property of ours, free from any equity, right, title or interest of yours; (ii) may be used by us in the ordinary course of our business, including without limitation to cover any exposure we may have to a third party liquidity provider with whom we have entered into transactions to hedge our exposure; (iii) will not be maintained by us in a segregated account; (iv) shall not be subject to a trust, deemed or otherwise, in your favour and (v) represents an unsecured claim against us for an amount equal to such amount and does not represent a claim, by way of trust or otherwise to the Margin or any assets of or under the control of Ebury.

22.5 If at any time and from time to time we determine that the Margin you have transferred to us is in excess of the amount we require for the purposes of securing or otherwise collateralising your obligations and liabilities to us hereunder, we will notify you of the existence of such excess Margin. At any time following such notification by us to you:

- (a) you may request the return of any excess Margin; and
- (b) subject to us determining that there continues to be excess Margin on the day on which you make such request, we will return to you as soon as reasonably practicable the relevant excess (if any).

22.6 You are not entitled to receive any interest on Margin delivered to us.

22.7 You may ask us to bring forward (pre-deliver) the Delivery Date or to extend (roll over) the Delivery Date in relation to the whole or only part of your Forward Contract. If we in our discretion agree to do so, you acknowledge that we may adjust the Payment Amount to reflect the new Delivery Date.

22.8 If you request and we agree to Close-Out a Forward Contract in advance of its original maturity or termination date, there may be a delay in us returning Margin (subject to any deductions we may make from such Margin pursuant to the terms of this Agreement) to you whilst we close out or otherwise terminate any transaction(s) which we have entered into with our liquidity providers and such liquidity providers return the margin related to such transaction(s) to us.

22.9 We may require you to enter into a credit and margin addendum for certain Forward Contracts. To the extent you enter in such credit and margin addendum, you will be required to comply with any terms contained therein.

22.10 To the extent you enter into a dynamic Forward Contract with us, you can find further information on this product in the relevant information sheet in <https://ebury.com/dynamic-forward-documentation/>.

23 Limit Orders

23.1 Where we agree to accept a Limit Order from you, whilst we shall use of reasonable endeavours to exchange money at the specified exchange rate within the agreed time period, Ebury does not guarantee that we will be able to effect an exchange at the specified rate relating to such Limit Order and you agree that we may have to effect the conversion at a rate which is different to the relevant specified exchange rate. Where we are unable to execute a Limit Order for you within the agreed time period, we shall seek to notify you where Applicable Laws allow.

23.2 If the last day of the agreed time period falls on a non-Business Day, your Limit Order will expire on the preceding Business Day.

23.3 You may cancel a Limit Order at any time (by telephone or by email which has been acknowledged by us), up until the point in time at which we commence the relevant conversion/transaction relating to such Limit Order.

23.4 Upon successful execution of a Limit Order, we will provide you with a Transaction Receipt setting out the details of the Trade.

24 Close Out

24.1 Without prejudice to and in addition to the rights of the parties pursuant to Clause 10 above, we may Close Out any or all Trades that you have with us, without notice to you:

- (a) if you fail to make any Payment to us when due (including, without limitation, the payment of Margin);
- (b) if you fail to provide us with any information we have requested from you;
- (c) any warranty, representation or undertaking you have given us is or becomes, in our opinion, materially inaccurate, incorrect or misleading;
- (d) in the event that you are subject to an Act of Insolvency;
- (e) if you take any action (or refrain from taking any action ) which places us or you in breach of Applicable Laws;
- (f) if the performance of our obligations under this Agreement become illegal or contrary to Applicable Laws;
- (g) if you breach any term of this Agreement;
- (h) the Trade is outside our risk appetite;
- (i) if we decide in our sole discretion that our relationship with you presents a business risk to us or any of our Affiliates;
or
- (j) if at any time during the term of a Forward Contract, you notify us or we otherwise become aware that the purpose of such Forward Contract (i) is no longer to facilitate your payment for identifiable goods, services and/or direct investment or (ii) could be considered to have been entered, or otherwise continue to be held by you, for speculative reasons.

24.2 If we Close Out one or more Trades pursuant to this Clause 24, or we agree to Close Out a particular Trade(s) following a request by you:

- (a) where we have elected to Close Out any or all current Trades following the occurrence of any of the events/ circumstances specified in Clause 24.1, we shall cancel any pending Orders and we will not be required to accept any further instructions or Orders from you;
- (b) we will buy-back/sell the currency that we have sold/bought for you in connection to the relevant Trade(s) at any market rate that is available to us. If we incur any Loss you will be liable to us for the amount of that Loss (as well as any costs incurred by us);

- (c) where permitted by Applicable Laws, we will not pay you any profit arising from the Close Out;
- (d) you acknowledge that the amount of any Loss of ours realised on the Close Out of a Trade is a debt payable by you to us and agree that we may immediately deduct the total amount of any Loss (together with any costs) from your General Client Account (if funds are available to do so);
- (e) if the amount we are seeking to recover from you exceeds the amount of any Margin or funds available in your General Client Account, you must immediately pay the remaining balance to us upon being notified by us of the total amount due; and
- (f) we may charge you interest on any sum that remains payable to us after we Close Out at the Interest Rate for the period from (and including) the original due date to (but excluding) the actual date of payment.

- (e) to a relevant tax authority to the extent necessary for the proper management of the taxation affairs of that party or any of its Affiliates; or
- (f) if it has the prior written approval of the other party to the disclosure.

25.3 We may also disclose or allow disclosure of your Confidential Information to (i) our Affiliates, (ii) business partners, suppliers and subcontractors for the performance of any contract we enter into with them or you, (iii) credit referencing agencies, identity checking agencies and other third parties in order to prevent fraud or help to verify your credit rating and identity, in each case, on the understanding that they keep it confidential. We further partner with certain third parties from time to time to refer clients to us in return for a revenue share. If you have been referred to us by a partner, you acknowledge and agree that we may disclose your Confidential Information to the partner for the purposes of providing them a status of your activity levels and calculating their revenue share. Any disclosure is made on the basis that the partner is bound by confidentiality obligations.

25.4 If a party intends to disclose Confidential Information in a way allowed by Clause 25.2(c), it must to the extent reasonably practicable:

- (a) give the other party advance notice of the fact and a copy of the information which it intends to disclose;

26 Data Protection

26.1 This Clause 26 needs to be read in conjunction with our privacy notice referred to in this Clause 26. We will observe the requirements of the Data Protection Act 2018 (as amended and supplemented) and the General Data Protection Regulation in the performance of our obligations under this Agreement and will comply with any reasonable request made or direction given by the Customer, which is directly due to the requirements of the relevant data protection legislation. The personal data Ebury holds in relation to you may include, without limitation, identification information, contact information and financial information. This personal data may come from (i) the way you interact with Ebury, for example, your use of the Services; (ii) the way you use the General Client Account, including information about payments you make and receive, such as amount, currency and the details of the beneficiary; (iii) people appointed to act on your behalf, credit reference agencies or fraud prevention agencies. If you download any mobile applications or use any online platforms, these may contain additional requests for your consent to use your information or personal data. If you give Ebury information about other persons which Ebury uses to provide the Services, you confirm you have obtained these persons' consent to provide the information to Ebury. Ebury collects and uses personal data to allow us (and, where relevant, our Affiliates) to (i) provide the Services to you; (ii) assess our risks in providing those Services; (iii) develop new and improved products and services, including conducting market and product analysis; (iv) carry out regulatory checks and meet our obligations to our regulators; (v) prevent and detect fraud, money laundering, identity theft and other crime; (vi) analyse, assess and improve its services to our clients, and for training and quality purposes; (vii) comply with Applicable Laws and (viii) enable Ebury to enforce its rights under this Agreement if necessary. Ebury may pass personal data to third-party service providers, our Affiliates, or Ebury's agents and advisers (including their subcontractors), on the understanding that they keep it confidential and have appropriate safeguards in place. Ebury may also pass personal data to third parties in order to prevent fraud (including fraud prevention agencies), EEA, UK and overseas regulators and authorities in connection with their duties (such as crime prevention or as otherwise required by Applicable Laws), credit referencing agencies and identity checking agencies (and other sources of information that help to verify your credit rating and identity). A record of this process may be kept by third parties and may be used to help other companies verify your credit rating and identity, and to prevent fraud. Ebury may also need to give its auditors, professional advisers, agents or subcontractors access to personal data or anyone who is interested in Ebury's business. Ebury may send personal data outside the EEA to jurisdictions which may not have an equivalent standard of data privacy laws as that in Europe or the EEA. Where Ebury does this, Ebury will take appropriate steps to protect personal data. For further information on our privacy notice, please see www.ebury.com/legal/privacy-notice.

26.2 Relationship of the parties: The parties acknowledge that they will each act as a separate and independent controller of personal data, which they process in the course of fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement. The data exporter (Customer) should be considered as data controller in relation to the data that is transferred to the data importer (Ebury) under the terms of this Agreement. As soon as the data has been transferred to the data importer, the data importer shall become controller in its own right in relation to its copy of such data. None of the provisions of this clause can be interpreted as indicating the intent of the parties to act as joint controllers. The parties shall each comply with their respective obligations under the applicable data protection laws. If necessary the parties can agree to sign a data sharing agreement to further describe the processing of the personal data that will take place.

29.11 No failure or delay by either party in exercising any of its rights under this Agreement or pursuant to Applicable Laws shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of that or any other remedy or right, nor shall it prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy. No single or partial exercise of such right or remedy shall prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

29.12 To the extent permissible by Applicable Laws, this Agreement and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation, interpretation, performance and/or termination (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be exclusively governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.

30 APP Reimbursement Rules

30.1 If you meet the definition of a Consumer and other eligibility requirements in the APP Reimbursements Rules, you may be eligible for reimbursement if you lose money because you are the victim of an APP Scam.

30.2 Depending on your circumstances, the amount you may be eligible to recover across all payments which are authorised as part of the same APP Scam may be subject to a maximum cap set under the APP Reimbursement Rules from time to time. This means you may not be able to recover amounts above the level of any cap.

30.3 Under the APP Reimbursement Rules, there may also be an excess amount applied to any Reimbursement Request (as defined in clause 30.4) you make, unless you were vulnerable (as determined by us acting reasonably) at the time you made at least one of the APP Scam Payment(s) and this affected your ability to protect yourself from the APP Scam.

30.4 If you think you have fallen victim to an APP Scam, you must contact us immediately using the contact information on this website <https://ebury.com/fps-chaps-fraud-reimbursement-regime/>. This website also includes information about how to report details of an APP Scam to us, how to make a request for reimbursement (a "Reimbursement Request") and the process we will follow to assess your claim and notify you of the outcome of our assessment.

30.5 There are various circumstances where you will not be eligible for reimbursement under the APP Reimbursements Rules. These circumstances are defined in the APP Reimbursements Rules and include but are not limited to:

- (a) the APP Scam Payment(s) to which the Reimbursement Request relates was made before the APP Reimbursements Rules came into force on 7 October 2024;
